The 2022 FCMF National Music Festival

August 6-13

An announcement will be posted on the FCMF website by February 1 indicating whether the Emerging Artist Stream will be an in-person or virtual competition. If held in-person, we will be hosted by Mount Allison University in Sackville, NB.

The Developing Artist, Non-Competitive Education, Recorded, and Composition Streams will be virtual.

NEW for 2022!!

Format in 2022

A decision will be announced by April on whether to hold the 2022 NB Provincial Music Festival Finals as a virtual or in-person event based on the health restrictions and emergency measure orders relating to the COVID-19 pandemic, and their effect on public gatherings and venue use. Masterclasses will be held with the adjudicator.

New Intermediate level classes at the FCMF National Music Festival

The FCMF National Music Festival's new Developing Artist Stream for intermediate level competitors will be fully implemented in 2022 with classes available in voice, piano, strings, guitar, woodwinds, brass, percussion, musical theatre, and chamber. This is a virtual competition. Adjudicators at the NB Provincial Music Festival may recommend two competitors in each class. Please see class descriptions for full details.

New Junior level classes at the FCMF National Music Festival

The FCMF National Music Festival's new Non-Competitive Education Stream for junior level students will be fully implemented in 2022 with classes available in voice, piano, strings, guitar, woodwinds, brass, percussion, musical theatre, and chamber. This is a virtual opportunity. Participants get adjudication comments and receive a certificate with a seal indicating the standard of performance achieved. Please see class descriptions for full details.

Adjudicators at each New Brunswick local festival may recommend one junior-level student per discipline to the virtual FCMF National Non-Competitive Education Stream [NCES]. Adjudicators at New Brunswick local festivals may submit their top provincial recommendation in each class to the national office for the NCES. A recommended student not able to attend the NB Provincial Music Festival may still submit a recording to the national NCES class.

New Composition classes at the FCMF National Music Festival

The FCMF National Music Festival's new Non-Competitive Composition Stream will be fully implemented in 2022 with classes for junior, intermediate, and advanced composers. This is a virtual event. Participants get adjudication comments and receive a certificate with a seal indicating the standard of performance achieved. Adjudicators at the NB Provincial Music Festival may recommend one competitor in each class. Please see class descriptions for full details.

Brief Introductory Remarks

Competitors in advanced level classes are allowed to make brief introductory remarks for some, or all, of their selections performed in competition, if desired. Introductory remarks are included in their overall performance time. Introductory remarks are not considered by adjudicators for class placements. See page 4 for full details

Previous FCMF National Music Festival First-Place Winners, except the Grand Award Winner, are eligible to compete in the FCMF National Music Festival in subsequent years.

Choral Classes

The FCMF National Music Festival is offering a revised selection of choral classes, including the addition of a Glee Choir, in their recorded competition. NBFMF is adding these classes to our provincial syllabus. Please see pages 20-21 for full details.

Classes for Bands and Orchestras

The FCMF National Music Festival is now offering a recorded competition with classes for school and community bands and orchestras. NBFMF is adding these classes to our provincial syllabus. Please see pages 23 for full details.

2022 NEW BRUNSWICK PROVINCIAL MUSIC FESTIVAL FINALS SYLLABUS

May 30 – June 4, 2022 | Mount Allison University

Entry Deadline: May 2, 2022

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR COMPETITORS AND TEACHERS

Expectations of Competitors

Participants [competitors, accompanists, and teachers] at the Provincial Music Festival are guests of Mount Allison University and the NB Federation of Music Festivals.

It is expected that all Competitors will:

- Respect the pianos [performance and warm-up rooms] by not moving them or placing anything other than music on them, without specific authorization.
- Respect the venues by proper disposal of garbage and recycled items, and observance of posted signs.
- Respect other Competitors by observing the guidelines given for practice rooms, and not leaving personal belongings at departure.
- Dress appropriately in concert attire - young ladies – dress [not too short] or dressy pant suit; young men – shirt and tie; no jeans or bare midriffs; Costumes are permitted for Musical Theatre classes.
- Refrain from chewing gum during performances or adjudication workshops.
- Competitors are required to number the first bar of every line in their music scores.
- Competitors are expected to be available 20 minutes before the beginning of their class.

Official rehearsals will be offered to Advanced Pianists if time permits.

Photography & Videography are permitted from the designated area of the hall. No flash photography is permitted. Audience members may only photograph or video performances with the competitor's permission. Adjudicator workshops may not be recorded.

Please note: The above information is provided to assist Competitors in having a positive experience at the Provincial Music Festival Finals. Breach of the above expectations will not necessarily result in disqualification except in extreme cases.

ELIGIBILITY

Local festivals may determine who represents them at the Provincial Music Festival Finals in one of two ways:

1. The Local Festival can add the provincial classes to their syllabus and students enter those classes if they are interested in being eligible for the Provincial Music Festival Finals. The local adjudicator would determine which student(s) should represent the festival in each class.
2. The local festival adjudicator could choose a student or students from the appropriate grade and/or age levels for each class, making sure they have appropriate repertoire to meet the requirements of the class they are being recommended for.

A sufficiently high standard of performance, in addition to a minimum mark of 85%, is required at the local festival for a recommendation to the New Brunswick Provincial Music Festival Finals.

To be eligible to advance to the FCMF National Music Festival from the New Brunswick Provincial Music Festival Finals, the Competitor(s) must be residing in New Brunswick or studying in New Brunswick.

A local festival may send TWO competitors in each of the Provincial Music Festival Finals classes. Local festivals are encouraged to have their adjudicator name one or more alternate competitors, and complete the necessary paperwork, in case the first-choice competitors are unable to attend for any reason.

In disciplines with age requirements, the competitor's age will be determined as of December 31 prior to the Provincial Festival. Local festivals must obtain proof of age, if requested.

Participation is limited to non-professional musicians. A non-professional musician is defined as a person whose principal means of livelihood is not obtained from the performance of music in the particular category in which he or she is competing. This stipulation does not, however, preclude such a person having occasionally received remuneration for musical services rendered, even in the area in which he or she is competing.

Competitors may only be recommended to the Provincial Music Festival Finals from ONE local festival per discipline. Each competitor must accept, or decline, a recommendation from a local festival within 48 hours.

Competitors are eligible to play within the same discipline on different instruments and/or different levels. Competitors may play two recommended instruments within the same entry. For example, competitor A may be recommended as Junior competitor for clarinet, and an Intermediate competitor for flute, or a Junior competitor with both instruments.

An entry fee is non-refundable unless the entry is declined by the NBFMF. Once an entry has been accepted, no changes to repertoire will be allowed.

Alternates

Adjudicators may recommend alternates in any class if the standard of performance is met. If a registered competitor is unable to participate, the named alternate can replace the competitor. As much notice as possible should be given to the alternate and NBFMF Office, but replacements will be accepted up until a half hour before the beginning of the class providing all requirements of original music, accompanist etc. can be met.

Entry fees are non-refundable unless an alternate has been named and registered. The original entry fee, less a $25 administration fee, will be reimbursed to the originally registered participant. The alternate will be required to pay the entry fee in full prior to participation.

For Chamber groups, if a recommended competitor from the Local Festival level is unable to participate at the Provincial level, they can be replaced by an alternate. There is a maximum of one substitution permitted for each Chamber group.

REPertoire

The minimum repertoire requirements to be performed at the Provincial Music Festival Finals, as outlined in the Provincial Syllabus, must have been heard by the recommending adjudicator at the Local Festival. This may be in a specifically designated Provincial Class or through a combination of performances in classes at the Local Festival. Competitors may add additional movements of their multi-movement works, and/or additional selections within the maximum time.

A Concerto or Concerted Work is defined as any composition written for solo instrument with orchestral accompaniment.

Sonatas, Sonatas and Concertos can be from any musical time-period if they have been graded, as per syllabus requirements. A one movement Sonata or Sonatina meets the requirements for Junior and Intermediate levels.

A selection is a composition or song cycle that is meant to be one body of work as indicated by the composer. Competitors may choose to perform partial or complete works based on syllabus requirements and time restrictions. A second selection cannot be another movement or song from the same work.

In disciplines with graded repertoire requirements, competitors must indicate on their entry form the syllabus from which they determined the level of difficulty of their repertoire. Syllabi accepted as references for the Provincial Music Festival are the Royal Conservatory of Music [RCM], Conservatory Canada [CC], Vincent D'Indy [VD] and l'École préparatoire de musique de l'Université de Moncton [ÉPUM]. Pieces from any of these four syllabi are accepted when listed by full title, and Opus number, where applicable. Due to the inherent differences in grading systems, the equivalent grades accepted for each level are listed in each discipline.

In order to encourage the use of new music and preserve objectivity, we will also accept letters of grading from the following places for pieces not listed in any of the above sources. For details on how to proceed with this option, contact as indicated:

- the Royal Conservatory of Music - www.rcmexaminations.org
- l'École préparatoire de musique de l'Université de Moncton - richard.boulanger@umoncton.ca
- Mount Allison University – Dr. Stephen Runge - srunge@mta.ca

Advanced competitors are allowed to make brief introductory remarks for some, or all, of their selections performed in competition, if desired. Introductory remarks are included in their overall performance time. They are not included in determining placements.

RECORDING REGULATIONS – If the festival is held as a virtual competition

1. Professional recordings are not required for the competition, but good audio and visual quality is very important. The quality on most cell phones is adequate.
2. Video recording can be done in home or studio or other location
 - Must include a clear picture of the student performing showing face or facial profile, hands (in the case of pianist and instrumentalist), and instrument
 - One take recording
 - Editing or splicing in any form is strictly prohibited
 - Camera angle must remain consistent throughout the performance
 - The complete performance of all pieces should be performed consecutively on one video without stopping the camera during breaks. Please be aware of time limits.
3. Video file is uploaded to a private YouTube channel as an 'unlisted' video. These videos can only be viewed by someone with the link.
4. A PDF file of the score for each selection performed is to be named with the same naming convention Discipline_Level_LocalFestival_ClassNumber_CompetitorName_Selection_Composer and uploaded to a cloud format [DropBox, Google Drive, iCloud etc.].
Example: Piano_Junior_Moncton_202_JaneSmith_Prelude No. 6_JohannSebastianBach
 - The PDF must include the cover and/or title page of the book and all pages of music performed in the competition
 - The first bar of each line must be numbered
 - If the selection score is a digital download, the receipt for digital purchase or proof of Public Domain must be included in the PDF file
5. Recorded entries must be submitted on-line on or before the deadline announced on the NBFMF website April 1:
 - The recording for the complete performance named as outlined in #3 above
 - A clear, scanned copy of each score with the first bar in each line numbered, and named as outlined in #4 above
 - A headshot photo of the competitor

PERFORMANCE AND MASTERCLASS WORKSHOPS

All copyrights must be observed.

- Junior & Intermediate competitors must provide original scores of music for the adjudicator.
- Advanced competitors must present an original score containing both solo and accompaniment.
- Chamber Ensembles must submit a full score.
- Legally downloaded music is permissible, but it shall be printed double sided and placed in a binder (not in sheet protectors) for the Adjudicator.
- Please indicate the source of the download by including payment receipt or proof of Public Domain.

Competitors playing with a score [Woodwind, Brass, Percussion, and Chamber classes] must perform from original scores. Failure to do so automatically disqualifies the competitor.

In Junior and Intermediate classes, transposition is permitted, unless otherwise noted, but the performance key must be indicated on the submitted score. In Advanced classes, the submitted score must be in the performance key.

The accompanist must have an original score on the piano. Accompanists are permitted to use digital scores on tablet computers such as iPads, provided they can clearly show upon registration that copyright laws have been observed. These scores are separate from the originals which must also be presented to the adjudicators.

Memorization of pieces is required in all levels of competition in all classes except [Woodwinds, Brass, Percussion, and Chamber Ensembles]. Failure to play from memory in required classes will result in disqualification.

Time limits for classes listed in the syllabus must be adhered to. Timing shall be from first note to last note, including pauses between pieces and costume changes. Performances exceeding the time limit will be disqualified. Over-time performances will not be interrupted, and official timekeepers will provide no warnings or signals.

Competitors disqualified from the competition for any reason including, but not limited to playing with music, use of photocopied music or being over time will:

1. Be disqualified from award placement, even if the lone competitor in a class.
2. Be disqualified from receipt of award monies.
3. Be disqualified from advancing to the FCMF National Music Festival in the current year.
4. Receive their adjudication comments and Participation Certificate.
5. Be required to attend the adjudication workshop and announcement session.

All competitors must attend their adjudication workshops and announcement sessions. Failure to do so will automatically disqualify the competitor from:

1. Receiving a written adjudication
2. Receiving an award placement
3. Receiving award monies
4. Proceeding to the current FCMF National Music Festival
5. Future participation in the Provincial competition for a period of one year in the discipline in which they were disqualified. Participation in other disciplines will be permitted.

FCMF NATIONAL MUSIC FESTIVAL

Competitors entering classes eligible for advancement to the FCMF National Music Festival are STRONGLY encouraged to read the FCMF National Music Festival Syllabus to guide their selection of repertoire at the Local and Provincial Music Festivals. There have been significant changes! <https://www.fcmf.org/syllabus/>

The FCMF National Music Festival is open to *non-professional musicians who are:

- i. 30 years or younger as of December 31 preceding the festival
- ii. Canadian citizens, or
- iii. living or studying in Canada, who perform at festivals affiliated through affiliated Provincial Music Festival Associations

Competitors must enter a Provincial Class to be eligible for The FCMF National Music Festival. Please refer to the 2022 syllabus of The Federation of Canadian Music Festivals for more complete rules governing these classes. It is available at www.fcmf.org.

Competitors recommended from the NB Provincial Music Festival Finals to the FCMF National Music Festival will have 48 hours to accept or decline the recommendation.

Competitors advancing to the National Music Festival from the New Brunswick Provincial Music Festival Finals must be residing or studying in New Brunswick.

Adjudicators at the Provincial Festival may choose, in each choral, band, orchestra category submitted one entry that is felt to be of a national standard.

Each provincial association may send 2 extra choirs and band/orchestral entries to the FCMF National Music Festival, upon recommendation of the adjudicator. The extra recorded submissions are across the classes, not per class. Each province is permitted no more than one extra submission per class.

MUSICAL THEATRE REGULATIONS

Accompaniment shall be restricted to one piano, which shall be provided at the competition. The piano must be respected as an instrument and may not be used as a prop and/or table. Competitors may place one hand on the piano. Similarly, the pianist is an accompanist and not a stage character.

- Performance time is first note or word to last note or word, including breaks

Repertoire

- Selections* recommended from the Local Festival must be performed
- Selections must be sung from a published score, in any published key of a staged musical
- Selections NOT permitted at any level include:
 - Selections from cabaret/revues (eg. "Taylor, the Latte Boy", "Alto's Lament", "The Girl in 14G", "Darryl is a Boy", etc.)
 - Selections from Operetta (eg. Gilbert & Sullivan, Hebert, Romberg, Johann Strauss, Lehar, Offenbach, etc.)
 - Selections that are primarily patter (eg. "Over the Moon" from Rent, "Rock Island" from the Music Man, "My Shot" from Hamilton)
- A variety of vocal techniques appropriate for musical theatre may be utilized
- All selections should be age appropriate
- Thought must be given to the Festival's focus on youth, venues and donors, when selecting the pieces to be performed. It is expected that selections will not include profanity, vulgar or offensive language. If the original piece contains such, the performer must alter the lyrics, identifying the change in the score.
- Spoken passages are allowed only if published in the script/score provided

Brief Definitions

- Musical – a group of pieces connected by a story line and characters
- Staged musical – written with the intent to be performed on stage, with set, costumes etc.
- Non-staged musical – written for movies only
- Revue – a group of pieces in musical theatre style without the connecting story line, although there may be a common theme
- Character piece – a piece in musical theatre style that is not part of a show
- Operetta – falls somewhere between an opera and a musical. Like a musical, it most often contains spoken dialogue as well as song; tend to be shorter and less complex than traditional operas.
- Ballad - used to describe music with a slower tempo, often of a serious or introspective nature, e.g. – "On My Own" [from Les Misérables].
- Up-Tempo - used to describe music with a lively tempo, often comedy, e.g. – "One Hundred Easy Ways" [from Wonderful Town].

Scores

- All selections are to be sung from a published score, in the published key, of a staged musical
- The original copy can be the Broadway score, from an Anthology, or purchased online. Proof of purchase must be shown for all online purchases

Costumes and Props

For Junior and Intermediate competitors:

- A table, chair, and coat rack will be provided.
- Stage technicians may assist competitors with stage set-up and takedown.
- Costumes and inanimate props are permitted (one to three props per selection). A list of props must be submitted on the competitor's provincial entry form.

For Advanced competitors:

- Competitors may perform in costume and use costume enhancements [e.g. hat, scarf, jacket, shawl] and one hand prop per selection.
- Competitors may leave the stage briefly for a drink of water or to facilitate an entrance but must not leave the stage for complete costume changes.

For all competitors:

- Limited movement is permitted. For reasons of safety and logistics, full stage choreography will not be possible.
- Breaks between selections, for costume changes and set-up and takedown of props are part of the competitor's total time allotment.

COMPOSITION CLASS REGULATIONS

The New Brunswick Provincial Music Festival Finals provides competition opportunity for the following types of composition:

Solo/Duo – for one or two instrument[s] or voice[s]. An accompaniment is permitted. Please indicate instrument[s] on your score.

Ensemble – any combination of three or more instruments and/or voices, including orchestral and choral scores. Please indicate instruments/voices on your score.

Participation is limited to previously unpublished works by non-professional composers.

This is a taped competition. Competitors are not required to attend the Provincial Finals. They will receive a virtual adjudication workshop. Each entry will consist of a printed score [PDF] and a digital recording [live or midi] of the composition [MP3 or MP4], submitted electronically. The performance does not have to be by the composer.

Each entry is assumed to be the original work of the individual whose name appears on the entry form attached to the manuscript. Any infraction of this regulation would result in the disqualification of the entry.

All rights to his/her original work will be retained by the competitor; however, by entering the competition you agree that your composition may be published, recorded and available to be downloaded for public use from the NBFMF and FCMF websites, or employed by the NBFMF and FCMF for publicity purposes after consultation with and agreement of the competitor.

Manuscripts printed by computers are encouraged. Handwritten manuscripts should be neat and legibly written in black ink, in regulation manuscript size, including all necessary details of dynamics, editing and tempo, with the first measure of each line numbered. Please retain the original copy of your submitted work.

All entries must include a Title Page, including the name of the selection and instrumentation, and a short section of age-appropriate programme notes or notes to the performer.

- Composition recommended from the Local Festival must be submitted
- Please indicate instrument[s] on your score
