General information

1. Competitors must read and comply with the rules and regulations governing the festival, as outlined in this document and in each class description.
2. The festival is open to non-professional musicians who are:
  - 30 years or younger as of December 31st, 2025
  - Mature students who are older than 30 years of age and will be participating in a non-competitive class.
  - Living or studying music in the Greater Moncton Area or who study with a teacher from the Greater Moncton area
  - Musicians from Southeastern New Brunswick Communities where no local festivals are held.
3. The submitted competitor entry form signifies knowledge of, and agreement with the General Regulations.
4. Competitors, parents and teachers are prohibited from having any contact with the adjudicators until all competitions are completed.
5. All awards are at the discretion of the adjudicators.
6. Cash prizes will not be awarded for non-competitive classes.

7. Registration will open Monday, January 19th, 2026.
8. The registration deadline is midnight, Friday February 27th, 2026.
9. All registration fees are non-refundable. If the fee has not been paid by the deadline, the competitor will be disqualified from participating in the festival.
10. An “Own Choice” selection cannot be a movement of a classical sonata-allegro form or a concerto. (Scarlatti, Soler, sonatas, etc., are binary form.)
11. Competitors who want to be eligible for recommendations to the NB Provincial Music Festival must enter the “GMMF Provincial Class” for each category.
12. All competitions shall be under the management of the Festival Committee of the Greater Moncton Music Festival Inc.
13. The festival committee will answer all questions referring to the Rules. Their response will be final and binding.

Performance Regulations

1. Competitors must:
  - Perform the repertoire indicated on the official entry form. Entry forms must be submitted complete with the title, the full name of the composer and exact timing of the piece, including the names and numbers of movements for each piece if applicable.
  - Number the first bar of each line in both solo part and the whole score.

- Provide scores that are original or copyright compliant. If the selected score is a digital download, the receipt for the digital purchase or proof of public domain must be provided. The rule is also applicable to accompanists. All copyright laws must be observed and failure to do so will result in disqualification.
- Perform repertoire that meets the repertoire requirements outlined in each class description.
- Find and pay accompanists necessary for each class and the galas.
- Remain in the same category throughout the festival, as it relates to age, grade or years of study. This rule does not apply to concertos, duets, ensembles, chamber music or composition; and
- Perform without microphones.

2. Competitors are:

- Allowed to enter an unlimited number of classes in his or her age or grade category.
- Not allowed to play the same piece twice at the festival (ex: one selection being played in a solo class cannot be played in another solo class or Provincial class) or for two consecutive years.
- Strongly encouraged to play by memory. A competitor who needs to use their score must use an original score or digital score on a tablet as per the guidelines.

3. Although not mandatory, competitors in Musical theatre classes are encouraged to wear costume attire.

4. Accompaniment is restricted to piano and acoustic guitar. No microphones are allowed.

5. In all classes where an age limit is specified, competitors must be of that age or younger as of December 31st, 2025.

Awards/Galas

1. To be eligible to receive a cash award, a competitor must perform in:
  - A minimum of two solo classes for junior competitors (14 years and under)
  - A minimum of three solo classes for intermediate competitors or two solo classes and the provincial class (18 years and under)
  - A minimum of three solo classes for senior competitors or two solo classes and the provincial class (30 years and under)
  - The above required solo classes do not include Sight Reading or Quick Study classes.
2. All awards and decisions as to which competitors will participate in the galas and be recommended for the NB Provincial Music Festival will be in the sole discretion of the adjudicators. Competitors chosen for the Provincial Music Festival shall play the pieces selected by the adjudicators.
3. Competitors who want to be eligible to participate at the NB Provincial Festival, must consult the provincial syllabus at nbfmf.org to confirm that their repertoire meets the provincial class requirements.
